

10th Canada's History Forum
Making History Relevant
Tuesday, November 21, 2017, Canadian Museum of History

Programme

10:00 – 10:30	Opening Remarks and Welcome
10:30 – 10:50	On the Values of History
10:50 – 12:00	Making the case for history In this panel speakers will reflect on their work and on recent experiences and discuss why history is relevant to the public.
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch
1:00 – 2:10	Making the case for history education In this panel speakers will discuss how history education is changing in the classroom and in museums why these changes are essential now and for future understandings of history.
2:10 – 3:10	Project Showcase This panel will feature two projects that have received 2017 Governor General's History Awards. Presenters will discuss their their projects, emphasizing the role of community relationships, and discuss best practices both for education and museum fields.
3:10 – 3:30	Concluding remarks