

NANTUCKET HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

Nantucket Island was the capital of the American whaling industry – a cultural legacy that still haunts every corner of this “elbow of sand” thirty miles out to sea. A National Historic Landmark, Nantucket is home to pristine beaches, a collection of over 800 pre-Civil War buildings, and a cobblestoned Main Street that has been celebrated by the American Planning Association as “One of the Ten Greatest Streets in the Country.”
