

Architectural Historian – RGA, Inc. (Cranbury, NJ)

RGA, Inc. is seeking a motivated and talented Architectural Historian to be based out of its Cranbury, New Jersey headquarters. The applicant must meet the qualifications set forth in the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Architectural Historians/Historians (36CFR61), have a Master's Degree in History, Architectural History, Historic Preservation or closely related field, and a minimum of 3-5 years of experience conducting historical research and writing. Experience with federal and state cultural resource management regulations, including a good working knowledge of NEPA and Section 106 is preferred but not required. Responsibilities include research in support of historical, historic architectural and archaeological investigations, and technical report writing. Familiarity with the regional history, culture and built environment of the Mid-Atlantic is desirable. Required are the abilities to conduct intensive archival research including title searches, to utilize online research tools, and to write clear, cogent, and thorough historic contexts. The ideal candidate will be detail-oriented, possess strong organizational skills, have the ability to manage priorities, and to meet project deadlines and budgets. Experience with historic architectural survey would also be advantageous.

This entry-level full-time position includes a competitive pay and benefits package. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications.

RGA, Inc. is one of the largest cultural resource consulting firms in the Mid-Atlantic, with a staff of Historians, Architectural Historians, and Archaeologists.

Qualifications: Master's Degree in History, Architectural History, Historic Preservation or closely related field and a minimum 3-5 years experience.

Please email a cover letter and resume (or CV) detailing education and work experience to:

Alice Domm, President & CEO
RGA, Inc.
259 Prospect Plains Road, Building D
Cranbury, New Jersey 08512
adomm@rgaincorporated.com