

Idaho State University

Historical Resources Management

Department of History
921 S. 8th Avenue
Pocatello, ID 83209-8079 USA
<http://isu.edu/history>

Director(s):

histdept@isu.edu
208-282-2379

Program Description: The M.A. program in Historical Resources Management was established in 2007 as the country's only GIS - based graduate program in history. The program now admits at least 6 students each year. Beginning in 2010, a new digital media track was created to complement the existing GIS track. The program is run in collaboration with the GIS Training and Research Center and the James E. Rogers Department of Communication, Media, and Persuasion at ISU.

Degrees Offered:

- B.A. in History
- M.A. in Public History

Program Strengths: Digital Media
Editing
Local/Community
History
Museum Studies

How Many Students are Admitted Annually:

BA: N/A MA: 6 PhD: N/A

Financial Aid Available: Teaching, research, and editorial assistantships with tuition waivers. Students from western states pay in-state tuition as part of the Western Regional Graduate Program.

Deadline to Apply: Rolling

Credit Hour Requirement: 30

Internship Requirement: Internships are arranged by the student with support from department faculty. A minimum of 3 credit hours.

Places Where Students Have Interned During the Past Three Years:

- Idaho State University
- Bannock County Historical Society
- Idaho Yesterdays
- Idaho National Laboratory
- City of Idaho Falls

Job Placement Assistance Offered: Informal support.

Employers Who Have Hired Graduates from this Program within the Past Five Years:

- GIS consulting, energy planning, and software firms