

Oklahoma State University
Public History

Department of History
Oklahoma State University
Stillwater, OK 74078-3054 USA
<http://history.okstate.edu/>

Director(s): Bill Bryans
bill.bryans@okstate.edu
405-744-8179

Program Description: The current public history (formerly applied history) program at Oklahoma State University was established in 1987 and admits approximately four to five new students a year. The program offers a MA in History with an emphasis in public history, especially museum studies and historic preservation. Approximately 45 students have completed the program, with an average of 2-3 graduating each year.

Degrees Offered:

- M.A. in History with a Certificate or Concentration in Public History

Program Strengths: Historic Preservation
Museum Studies

How Many Students are Admitted Annually:
BA: N/A MA: 4-5 PhD: N/A

Financial Aid Available: Assistantships
Stipends
Tuition Waiver

Deadline to Apply:

Credit Hour Requirement: 36

Internship Requirement: Required. Internships are arranged by Program Director and Students.

Places Where Students Have Interned During the Past Three Years:

- City of Tulsa Preservation Commission
- Tulsa Foundation for Architecture
- Gilcrease Museum
- Oklahoma State Historic Preservation Office
- Sheerar Museum of Stillwater History

Job Placement Assistance Offered: Job Search Counseling, resume review, mock interviewing, and letters of recommendation.

Employers Who Have Hired Graduates from this Program within the Past Five Years:

- Oklahoma Historical Society
- Oklahoma State Historic Preservation Office
- National Park Service
- Private Historical Consulting Firms