17	I worked in a corporate environment for several years before getting my MA. I was hired for my first job out of my MA not only because I knew general issues in public history, but mostly because I had 3+ years of grant management and client services experience. Neither of these skills were taught in my public history program. I'm not sure the typical MA in PH grad would have the skills, training, or experience to get that job, especially if they went into the MA directly out of undergrad.	9/7/2016 1:06 PM
18	It's difficult to find a position that fully takes advantage of the media component, also.	8/31/2016 10:29 PM
