Job Summary:
The Kentucky Historical Society (KHS) is many things: a library, a museum, an educational institution, a research center. We oversee three historic sites and protect a treasure trove of documents and artifacts for the public. But at the heart of it all, we are a network of people dedicated to preserving and exploring Kentucky’s rich and fascinating past and then using the power of history to improve life today.

KHS’s mission is to educate and engage the public through Kentucky’s history in order to meet the challenges of the future. As a team member at KHS, you play a significant role in supporting our success and the relevance of history.

The Museum Program Coordinator will work to fulfill the mission of the Kentucky Historical Society as well as work to help their colleagues throughout the organization succeed. Each organizational team at the KHS plays a significant role in supporting our success and the relevance of history. Learning Services is responsible for educational programs at the Kentucky History Center and Museums as well as off-site. The Museum Programs Coordinator, with a K-12 student focus, is to develop, facilitate, and evaluate educational experiences through Kentucky’s history for our visitors and patrons. This energetic person will lead virtual and on-site field trips, coordinate outreach programs, and provide standards-based resources for the school audience.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:
Coordinate quality field trip experiences for the K-12 student audience virtually and while they are visiting our three museum sites.

- Customize Learning Labs and grade-specific tours for the school audience to enhance their field trip experience by following the Kentucky Academic Standards for Social Studies and trends in Museum Education.
- Develop, refine, and conduct interpretive tours for school groups at the Old State Capitol, and assess the demand for similar tours at the History Center and Kentucky Military History Museum.
- Develop self-guided activities for gallery visits.
- Facilitate logistics for a positive, rewarding field trip experience: coordinate daily details with the Visitor Services team, perform museum introductions, and monitor students in the galleries.
Coordinate with teachers, librarians, and other community organizations to offer experiences for K-12 students in their classrooms.

- Integrate and understand the Kentucky Academic Standards for Social Studies and inquiry-based learning to promote student growth in visual literacy, historical literacy, and 21st-century skills.
- Prepare and inventory supplies for lessons, maintain the artifact collection used for teaching purposes, set up and take down of programs, and drive to and from school/community sites.
- Train volunteers, interns, and staff on K-12 programming.

Other duties as assigned by the Teacher Programs Manager.
