COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

POSITION

The Center for Environmental Management of Military Lands (CEMML) seeks to hire a full-time Temporary Cultural Resource Technician to provide on-site program support for the Fort Liberty Cultural Resource Management Program (FLCRMP).

ORGANIZATION

CEMML is a research, education, and service unit within the Warner College of Natural Resources at Colorado State University (CSU). CEMML applies the latest and most appropriate science to promote the sustainable management of natural and cultural resources on Department of Defense (DoD) and other public lands. We provide technical support, conduct applied research, and offer career development and learning opportunities to support resource stewardship. We collaborate with our sponsors and within CSU to resolve complex environmental issues, leaving a legacy of science-based decisions that sustain our resources for future generations.

- Familiarity with the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA)
- Excellent written communication and organizational skills.
- Ability to work with a wide range of data, organize details, and meet deadlines.
- Willingness to work in a highly structured work environment with established lines of authority, procedures, and protocols.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite.

- Must be legally eligible to work in the United States by proposed start date. CEMML will not provide visa sponsorship for this position.
- Must have a valid driver's license or the ability to obtain a driver's license by the employment start date.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS

- Highly qualified candidates will possess at least one (1) year of post-graduate professional experience in archaeological and/or architectural history fieldwork and research (e.g., inventory, documentation, evaluation and analysis of precontact and/or historic properties).
- Working knowledge of National Register criteria and determination of eligibility
- Previous work experience inventorying and documenting cultural resources is desirable.

BACKGROUND CHECK

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search and motor vehicle history.

PAY RATE

- $21.45 per hour
- Lodging and per diem not provided.
- This is a full-time Temporary Hourly position; start and end dates are flexible.
