

University of Missouri-Columbia
College of Arts and Science
Department of History
Assistant Teaching Professor

Job Description

The Department of History at the University of Missouri, Columbia is seeking a non-tenure track Assistant Teaching Professor in Public History with an emphasis in U.S. History; all fields are welcome. This position is renewable annually. The successful candidate will be expected to teach three to four courses a semester, which will include specialty courses in the field of Public History as well as sections of both our pre-Civil War U.S. Survey course as well as the post-Civil War U.S. Survey course. The successful candidate may also assist with the Department of History's internship programs, growing our internship partnerships.

Qualifications

Minimum qualifications include a Ph.D. in History by time of appointment. Candidates will be evaluated on teaching and service.

Application Materials

Please apply online at: <https://hr.missouri.edu/job-openings> (Job Opening ID 60915). Use the online application and be prepared to upload a cover letter describing your teaching interests, a copy of your current C.V., the names of three references, and sample syllabi for courses you would teach or have taught.

Review of applications will begin November 2, 2026. Applicants should apply by this date for full consideration, but applications will be accepted until position is filled.

Applicants may contact the Chair of the Search Committee Prof. Linda Reeder (reederl@missouri.edu) with any questions about the job duties. Contact Sonam Patel (sonam.patel@missouri.edu) for any questions about the application process.

Benefit Eligibility

This position is eligible for University benefits. The University offers a comprehensive benefits package, including medical, dental and vision plans, retirement, and educational fee discounts. For additional information on University benefits, please visit the Faculty & Staff Benefits website at <http://www.umsystem.edu/totalrewards/benefits>

Equal Employment Opportunity

The University of Missouri is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

To request ADA accommodations, please call the Director of Accessibility and ADA at 573-884-7278.